Dairy Farming in S. W. Virginia. Mr. Palmer, of New York, as his already been announced, has made arrangements to establish a large dairy farm at the Salt Works, and the following letter written from Abingdon by Mr. Edwards, of Utica, N. Y., who has just visited Virginia for the purpose of deciding for himself as to the capabilities of the country, will doubtless exert no inconsiderable influence in directing the attention of others to the same locality. The letter which was published in the Utica Morning Herald of the 28th ult., is as follows: ABINGDON, Va., January 20, 1868.-Attending the meeting of the American Dairymen's Society, at Utica, on the 8th and 9th instant, I was persuaded, after the adjournment of that body to take a reconnoitering trip through a portion of the Southern States, with the view of looking out for the dairymen's interests in that quarter.

Doubting very much, in my own mind, what would be the treatment given to New Yorkers by a people whom they had met so recently in hostile array, I was inclined not to venture; but a desire to establish my business in a country that, I was convinced, was better adapted to the purpose than my own, finally deter mined me to make the experiment.

And surely, sir, there never was a graver error committed by our people, than when they supposed that hone t minded immigrants from the North would be unkindly used in the South, or even excluded from that society which their education and morals entitled them to enter. The people of this pastoral district of Virginia have extended to me, and all proper Northern men, the most polite and generous hospitality. Instead of looking with a jealous eye upon the emigration of men from a more frigid clime, they are universally anxious to promote the material interests of their country by procuring the introduction of Northern capital and skil into their midst. The market value of lands in this quarter, when the fertility of the soil, the topography of the surface, and the facilities for outlet are taken into consideration, is remarkably low. The whole surface of southwest Virginia, which includes all that portion of the State from the Alleghany mountains to the Kentucky line, is formed upon a solid foundation of lime stone.

A grass, identical with the tamous blue grass of Kentucky, springs spontaneously from the ground. Innumerable rivers, creeks and branches, run through the fields. The Almighty, in His beneficent wisdom, never scat tered the seeds of prosperity over any land with a more bountiful hand than he did when forming the great agricultural and pastoral district of Southwest Virginia.

The long line of railway running through the heart of this country and extending from the port of Norfolk to the city of Memphis, to gether with various other roads tapping this line at different points, afford this people a ready communication with all parts of the

The climate of Southwest Virginia is exceedingly uniform and salubrious. The robust figures and ruddy features of even the gray haired old men indicate great health and longevity among the inhabitants.

I have examined a number of farms in the vicinity of Abingdon, and if my experience in the dairy business is worth anything I pronounce them superior in every respect to the lands in Oneida, and they may be purchased at one third the price per acre. Good milch cows may be had for $25 a piece, and owing to sease has failed to yield to this the clemency of the weather they can be wintered for less than one third of what it costs in New York.

A Peculiar Friend.

C. C. Bowen, who has been figuring so extensively of late as a practising attorney in the provost courts, but more particularly as the "freedmen's friend," was yesterday arrested by the military authorities and committed to Castle Pinckney to wait trial by a military commission upon several charges, amongst which are the assumption of military authority and embezzlement of the funds of freedmen on Edisto and Wadmalaw Islands. The arrest was made, we are informed, at the request of Gen. Scott, and upon representations from parties whom Bowen has victimized. The history of Bowen is not unknown to a community which will receive the intelligence of his committal with unfeigned satisfaction .-His first appearance in this city was in the character of a captain in a battalion of savalry, commanded by Major Wright, from which position he was afterwards dismissed upon a finding of a court martial, convened for the purpose of trying him upon charges of conduct unbecoming an officer and a gentleman, forging pay-rolls, and being absent without leave, from command; for each of which, severally, he was convicted. At a later day, if our memory serves us, in the fall of 1863, Major Wright, the officer to whom we have referred, was assassinated, and Bowen, upon the affidavit of the man arrested on susicion, was taken in custody for alleged comcity in the offence, and remained in the jail of the United State 3 troops, when he was released by a sort of gen eral authorized jail delivery, was made clerk of the provost court, and soon afterwards made his debut as a reconstructed friends of the freed non and enemy to the white people of this State. More of his history, but nothing creditable, could be given, did we feel warranted in bestowing notice upon him, but it suffices to say that he has been foremost, until now, in slandering a "lost cause," to which he was personally a disgrace, and in endeavoring to wean the colored people of this city from the confidence of their old employers for purposes of self-aggrandizement. He has, nevertheless, recovered so much as to be elected a delegate to the great ringed streaked and striped, and his course in that always on hand. body, considering the previous character of jun 21-1m

Gents-The wonderful cures which have been made by your Poulterers' Friend cannot fail to interest all who raise poultry. A gentleman of this village has been experimenting on chickens with the gapes. He tried your Poulterers' Friend, according to the directions, and it had the desired effect in removing the worm, effectually relieving the chicken at once Since then I have had many calls for it, and it has been used extensively with the same result. It is of incalculable value to all who raise poultry. A. SPENCER. Respectfully,

Now, who that understands the subject will pretend to deny that the power of procreation is lost soon r by those falling into improper habits than by the prudent? Besides being deprived of the pleasure of health; off-pring, the most serious and destructive symptoms of both body and mind arise. The ystem becomes deranged, the Physical and Mental Functions Weakened, Loss of Procreative Power, Nerv. us Irritability, Dy-pepsia, Palpitation of the Heart, Indigestion, Constitutional Debility, and Wasting of the Frame, Consumption, Decay and Death.

DR. JOHNSON, Member of the Royal College of Surgeons London, Graduate of one of the most eminent Colleges in the United States, and the reater part of whose life has been spent in the als of London, Paris, Philadelphia, and elsewhere, has effected some of the most astenishing cures that were ever known, many troubled with ringing in the head and ears when asleep, great nervousness, being alarmed at sudden sounds, bashfulness, with frequent blushing, attended sometimes with derangement of mind, were cured immediately.

TAKE PARTICULAR NOTICE. Dr. J. addresses all those who have injured themselves by improper indulgence and soli-tary habits, which ruin both body and mind, unfitting them for either business, study, socie ty or marriage. These are some of the sad and melancholy effects produced by early habits of youth, viz Weakness of the Back and Limbs Pains in the Head, Dimness of Sight, Loss of Museular Power, Palpitation of the Heart, Dyspepsia, Nervous Irritabi ity, Derangement of the Digestive Functions. General Debility, Symptoms of Consumption, &c MENTALLY.-The fearful effe to on the mind are much to be dreaded. Loss of Memory Confusion of Ideas, Depression of Spirits, Evil Forebodings, Averson to Society, "all Distrust Love of Solitude, Timidity, &c., are some of the evils produced. Thousands of persons of all ages can now judge what is the cause of their declining health, losing their vigor, becoming weak, pale, neryous and emac ated, having a singular appear ance about the eyes, Cough, and Symptoms of Consumption. YOUNG MEN,

Who have injured themselves by a certain practice, indulged in, a habit tr quently learned from evil companions, or at school, the effects of which are nightly tell. even when asl ep, and, if not cured, readermarriage impossible, and destroys both money and body, should apply turn slicery. What a pity that a young man, the hope of his country, the pride of his parents, second in snatched from all prospe ts and enjoyments of life by the consequence of deviating from the path of nature, and indulging in a certain secret habit. Such persons must, before contemplating MARRIAGE. reflect that a sound mind and body are the most necessary requisites to promote connubial hap-Indeed, w thout these the journey through life becomes a weary pilgrimage; the prosp ct hourly darkens to the view, the mind becomes shadowed with despair and filed with the melancholy reflection that the happiness of another becomes blighted with your own. DISEASES OF IMPRUDENCE. When the misguided and imprudent votary of pleasure finds that he has imbibed the seeds of this painful disease it too often happens that an ill-timed sense of shame or dread of discovery deters him from applying to those, who, from education and respectability, can alone befriend him, delaying till the constitutional symptoms of this horrid disease make their appearance, such as ulcerated sore throat, diseased nose, n cturnal pains in the head and limbs. dimness of sight, deafness, nodes on the shinbones and arms, blotches on the head, face and extremities, progressing with frightful rapidity till at last the palate of the mouth or the bones of the nose fall in, and the victim of this awful disease becomes a horrid object of commisseration, till death puts a period to his dreadful sufferings, by sending him to "that Undiscovered Country from we once no traveller returns "

It is a MELANCHOLY FACT that thou-

CURY, ruin the constitution and make the residue of life miserable. DR. JOHNSON, OFFICE, No. 7, SOUTH FREDERICK STREET,
